

The development or programming phase of a website project immediately follows the completion of the design and layout. Development can involve everything from the creation of Cascading Style Sheets (CSS) to the building of custom Content Management Solutions. KnockMedia can help you build a custom website that will streamline your business processes and meet your organizations' specific needs.

Website Development Solutions

Many of our clients come to us with specific functional requirements for their websites. Their project requirements are often complex and cannot be met with an out-of-the-box solution. For these clients, we provide custom website development and programming solutions. Our developers and programmers are proficient with MySQL, PHP, ASP, CGI, Perl, database design and architecture.

Our team consists of professionally trained and highly experienced developers and programmers who specialize in:

- ✓ Ecommerce Solutions (shopping carts)
- ✓ Content Management Systems
- ✓ Custom CSS/XHTML Development
- ✓ Multi-lingual Functionality
- ✓ Lead Capture
- ✓ Web Statistics & Analysis
- ✓ Search Functionality
- ✓ Facebook Applications (FBML)
- ✓ Wireless Application Protocol (WAP)
- ✓ File Transfer Protocol Websites (FTP)

Our web development team works closely with each client to ensure that all initiatives follow a detailed project plan.

Custom website applications help streamline business processes and ensure accurate operations. Contact us today to learn more about our custom website development services, and start on the road to realizing your businesses' true online potential.
